

FLUENCY 1

Underline the adverbial phrases in the sentences.

1. Anita placed her sparkly earrings inside the jewellery box.
2. As quick as a flash, the hungry tiger pounced upon its unsuspecting prey.
3. Jane and her family live on the new housing estate.
4. Without warning, the fierce tsunami engulfed the village.
5. We must deliver the controversial news as soon as possible.

FLUENCY 2

Rearrange the sentences to use the adverbial phrases as fronted adverbials.

1. The dramatic thunder and lightning ended after a while.
2. Darcey and Asha have been next door neighbours for six years.
3. There were flames everywhere he looked so he desperately called for help.

FLUENCY 3

Tick to show which sentences have used a fronted adverbial.

1. Yesterday, we bought all the equipment we need for the fishing tournament.
2. In the distance, Marlon could see a blinding, yellow light.
3. The ancient artefact was placed upon a red, velvet cushion.

FLUENCY 4

Add a fronted adverbial to each of these sentences.

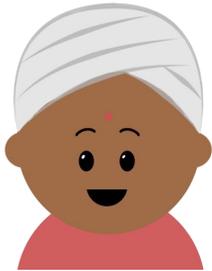

1. Caleb hid inside the dark, damp cave.
2. The motorcycle zoomed past us.
3. An elegant swan rested alone.
4. The cruel, elderly witch casts curses on her enemies.

REASONING 1

Ranjit says he has used a fronted adverbial in his sentence.

Suddenly, the mischievous monkey leapt onto the bonnet of the car.

Do you agree with him?

Explain your reasoning!

REASONING 2

Odd One Out!

1. At the beginning of the summer holidays, Jane and her sister bought new swimming costumes.
2. He had to admit that he'd made a terrible mistake.
3. The scientist developed the antidote inside her secret laboratory.

REASONING 3

Mrs Windsor asked the children to write sentences using fronted adverbials.

Darcey

Between the park and the church there is a beautiful waterfall.

Alfie

Bravely, did you hear the park ranger chased away the bear?

Identify, explain and correct the mistakes that the children have made.

